

AIR-1 Radio is the only station we listen to as a family. It is clean music for my children to listen to. AIR-1 provides a service to the community by providing not only wholesome music but updates on community church events and charities. I believe that AIR-1 is in the public interest because we have very few music stations that my family enjoys listening to together and encourages my children to make good choices in life.
to be